

Please do not eliminate something that is working. I have enjoyed the fact that I receive no harrassing sales phone calls during dinner or during sleeping hours from some sweat shop in California.

I do not wish this law to be turned over in the state of Indiana. What we have is working so please do not undo the efforts of so many.